

POOL RULES

The Kings Point Recreation Club, Inc. (KPRC) Board of Directors has approved the following Code of Conduct and General Rules applicable to KPRC (also known as Kings Point Pool) facilities and sanctioned activities.

The Kings Point Recreation Club is a private club sustained by annual (and other) passes and donations.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Kings Point Recreation Club or Kings Point Pool (KPRC or KPP) strives to create an atmosphere of respect and courtesy. Appropriate social behavior and treatment of others is expected of all KPRC pool pass holders and guests. Kings Point Recreation Club has long been a hub for neighborhood social activity where individuals and families can relax, enjoy and celebrate Summer in Kings Point/Bel-Aire!

To keep the KPRC atmosphere safe and enjoyable for everyone, abusive behavior will not be accepted or tolerated by anyone participating in any KPRC activities or during the use of KPRC facilities. Boisterous intoxication, audible profanity, reckless behavior or any action that would likely lead to the endangerment of others is strictly forbidden and is cause for immediate disciplinary action.

Any KPRC contracted staff person or Board Member shall be authorized to enforce the Code of Conduct along with any rules and regulations applicable to the facility or sanctioned activity.

Verbal instructions or warnings provided by KPRC staff or Board Members must be followed as they are applicable to the Code of Conduct and General Rules. Any person acting contrary to the aforementioned standards, repeatedly violating any general rules or willfully causing damage to KPRC property may be subject to:

- A verbal warning
- An indefinite suspension of the privilege of using KPRC facilities or participating in KPRC sanctioned activities
- Revocation of passes (annual or other)
- Legal action

Annual passes are non-refundable and will not be reimbursed in case of suspension or revocation due to Code of Conduct violations.*

KPRC pass holders and guests are encouraged to report problematic behavior to a KPRC Board Member in the event said behavior is not addressed by KPRC staff at the time of the occurrence.

POOL & FACILITY RULES

Anyone using the facilities (pool, clubhouse and grounds) does so at their own risk. No liability will be assumed by the KPRC for the actions of any employee, pass holder or guest in connection with such use.

Rules are outlined below and are followed in order to maintain a safe environment for all pass holders and guests. The pool staff is authorized by the Board of Directors to evict any persons for disorderly conduct on Club grounds. The staff may also, at any time, enforce any additional rules they deem necessary at the time, to ensure the safe operation of the Club.

General Rules

1. Swimming is permitted during posted pool hours and special events designated by the board. A lifeguard must be on duty. Any swimming outside of official pool hours and events is cause for immediate disciplinary action.
2. All pass holders and their guests must sign in each time they enter the Club. If a staff member is not available at the time of your arrival, it is your responsibility to sign in or if you have guests to notify a staff member to sign you in and collect any guest fees.
3. Recreational swimming will be suspended for safety concerns such as weather, pool chemical issues, and swim meets and/or other activities approved by the Board of Directors.
4. NO pets are permitted on Club grounds at any time. Professional guide dogs are allowed.
5. Pass holders and guests shall be considerate of others by keeping the volume of radios down and conversation content/volume mindful of children's presence in the area.
